GOODREMONT'S INC. TO MARKET LANIER BRAND PRODUCTS

Toledo, OH, April, 2007 – Goodremont's Inc. announced that they have been asked by Ricoh Corp. to market the Lanier brand of office equipment. The addition of Lanier to Goodremont's product offerings will leverage the advanced technology and global strength of Ricoh Corp. with the longevity and history of customer satisfaction that has been Goodremont's Inc. mainstay.

Mark Goodremont, President of Goodremont's Inc. says "We understand the complexities of office equipment today and the addition of Lanier and its resources will continue to provide our customers state of the art technology."

Goodremont's Inc. is a locally owned office equipment dealer founded in 1947. While they once may have been only thought of as a provider of office equipment, over the course of time they have evolved into a solutions-oriented business addressing the complex requirements of processing information in today's business world. More information is available on their website at www.goodremonts.com.
